Vision, Mission & Values

Blending Coconuts with Knowledge and Wisdom is our Ethos, hence our name "Coco Veda".

We are Inspired by the Plant based Science of Ayurveda as a result of which we have developed about 20 Lifestyle Wellness Massage Oils & Balms as a testimony to "There's an Oil for Everything !"

Our range of Products are an output of the Kaizen Philosophy of Continuous Improvement that we abide by and their Quality speak for themselves – Plant Based , Waterless , No Animal Cruelty , Chemical & Alcohol Free .

Coco Veda's long term Vision includes an integrated Coconut Processing Farm in The Philippines that will commit to uplifting the Livelihoods of the Farmers & Women Community from below USD 2 a day to above USD 5 a day. We intend to incorporate eco tourism as an offering in this farm and also to setup a Coconut Academy for the Industry to collaborate towards achieving the U.N. Goals on a wider scale.
